

What is Markdown?

- Markdown is another way to write plain text documents like microsoft word, or google docs but with a few lightweight formatting options. Its future proof and does not require a HTML, instead allows to convert the plain text documents.

What is Git?

- Is a version control system that runs on the machine.

What is GitHub?

- Hosted in the cloud/web to host git

What is Slack?

- Slack is another form of instant messaging to keep in contact with the class and the professor.